|-------------|

Georgian Maltese cross chalcedony pendant in 9k gold. This antique reliquary cross is made of four chalcedony elements forming a cross, held together by a central gold element with delicate engraving. This central element likely originally contained a woven lock of hair beneath glass, although it is no longer present. The pendant has an intricately decorated bail. This Georgian cross is from around 1820.

Trefoil hallmark

Dimensions: 60 x 34 mm.

Note: Similar Georgian Maltese crosses can be seen in the Victoria & Albert Museum in England.
