Description

India, 1930s/1950s, very pretty bronze and brass temple bell. Made up of two distinct parts that fit together perfectly, the bell is located in a sort of cage equipped with a socket which is placed in a half-sphere forming the base of the whole and allowing the resonance of the crystalline sound. Total height 13.8 cm. Base diameter 13.5 cm. Receptacle diameter 10.9 cm. Good condition except for some oxidation under the base, a slight deformation at the base which is barely perceptible and has no impact on the aesthetics. We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. The shipment is made with insurance included. Shipping rates: Metropolitan France: 22 euros, countries of the European Union and Switzerland: 28 euros, countries of Eastern Europe and the Maghreb: 45
