Description

Charming little solid mahogany furniture composed of a sliding curtain, fitted with brass buttons and formed of small quarter-round slats, revealing a writing space. There we discover two small identical drawers equipped with brass buttons and topped with a niche. A sliding shelf appears. It has a mahogany surround and is darkened with black leather with a gold vignette. This cylinder has rounded sides with two grooves. Above the cylinder, we have two drawers whose perimeter has a small strip. They also have brass pull knobs. This little joy of the day is topped with a blue gray Turquin Marble, surrounded by an openwork brass gallery with a knockout from the bottom. This piece of furniture rests on two Lyre-shaped legs covered in the center with three brass cylinders. In the lower
