Description

Beautiful Louis XVI style sofa in walnut wood with a particular shape of the backrest.

The Louis XVI period, which dates back to the end of the 18th century, is known for its neoclassical style. This style is characterized by the use of straight lines, balanced proportions and decorative motifs inspired by classical antiquity.

The presence of Louis XVI style suggests attention to detail and a sense of elegance to the sofa.

Walnut is a premium wood often used for high-quality furniture.

The particular shape of the backrest with two lyres inside is very beautiful.

Dimensions: 48x95 cm with height 94 cm
