Description

Antique fireplace from the Napoléon III period in striking, patterned Rouge du Languedoc marble. This vividly red marble is used during centuries for many highly-valued objects and noble palaces. The Grand Trianon, built for Marie-Antoinette, features several fireplaces made out of this French marble. Fireplace is in perfect shape, no restorations and very easy to re-install. All our fireplaces will be delivered with old marble floortiles to make a frontfloor. Tiles like Carrara or Noir de Mazy, or in match with the Rouge du Languedoc. Also in our stock: Foyer-tiles to finish the foyer in the style of this fireplace. Worldwide shipping. Delivery in Europe can be done by Antique Fireplaces First: 'In House Delivery'.
