Superb enameled earthenware planter with typically Art Nouveau floral decoration from the 19th century. Floral decoration of peonies in very tender pink colors. Contours of each petal highlighted with a fine gold enameled net. Creamy white background. On the sides wide pink band highlighted with a row of golden enameled pearls and in the center of the lambrequins with pearls in relief. Around the foot a large sustained pink net takes up the motifs on the lambrequins with pearls. Under the base hollow number and initials: very probably a work of the Longchamp earthenware factory, period of Robert Charbonnier. Very beautiful flared shape. Perfect general condition.
