Description

Edwardian lioness tie pin in 18-karat yellow gold (750) and platinum. It features the head of a lioness with an open mouth, holding an old mine cut diamond set in a closed setting. The lioness's head is intricately detailed, showcasing its fur. The realistic naturalistic craftsmanship of this piece is quite exquisite, reminiscent of pins designed by René Boivin around 1906. Edwardian period.

Owl and mascaron hallmark (French State hallmark for 18-karat gold and platinum)

Dimensions: 70 mm x 9 mm.

Estimated diamond weight: 0.08 carat.
