Description

We are pleased to present to you a pair of magnificent wall lights decorated with charming cherubs, "putti", which delicately hold an arm of light in each hand. These wall lights are treasures from the late 19th century, a period characterized by high-quality craftsmanship and refined aesthetics. These cherubs or putti, symbolizing innocence and beauty, add a romantic and captivating dimension to these wall lights. They are the guardians of light and evoke a time when craftsmanship and aesthetics were at their peak. The sconces held by the cherubs add functionality to the beauty of these wall lights, creating soft, warm lighting. The quality of their construction is undeniable, and they are designed to stand the test of time. These putti sconces are ready to become centerpieces of your collection.
