Description

Louis XV Armchair with Walnut Frame, Italy 18th Century.
Interesting Louis hemmed with fillets carved from solid walnut.
the top of the backrest is carved with a beautiful asymmetrical shell.
the armrests are robust and curved, they hang elegantly on the seat which is also curved on three sides.
the front crosspiece of the seat is sculpted with an elegant asymmetrical shell.
the seat rests on four curved legs ending in simulated sabots. beautiful doweled work.
a very beautiful patina of the blond walnut without notable restoration.
the back frame holds thanks to walnut cleats. that of the seat sits perfectly in the crosspieces.
