Description

I would love to come across a work by Nguyen Phan Chanh (1892-1992) on my path...

He is now a world reference in terms of silk painting.

He is also one of the recognized artists who has succeeded in capturing the essence of Vietnam.

International recognition of his work dates from the 1930s, from his first exhibition in Paris.

Here is the rare catalog, published for the artist's centenary, presenting a large number of his works in color, as well as a detailed catalog with black and white photos of the exhibition. texts in Vietnamese and English
