

Bendo De Java

2 750 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Horn

Length : 30cm

Width : 10cm

Depth : 0,5cm

Description

Ceremonial machete. This type of machete were usually used in Java to cut coconuts.

Given the finesse of the carving and the materials used, this is a protocol object of royal wedding donation.

The handle is carved in the shape of a lion's head made out of blond horn with an amber appearance.

The eyes are made out of small shells

Dealer

Jacob Norden Fine Antiques

Musical instruments

Tel : 0032477349513

Waterloo 50703