Description

A zoomorphic pitcher in cracked enameled terracotta Painted with a brush From the 1950s/60s Certainly made in VALLAURIS-FRANCE Perhaps I will have explanations later...!? It has naive sides But it is very well worked with even enamel on the inside, openwork (handle and pouring spout) The wings are extra thick... In good condition without cracks, just a jump enamel on each eye, and a mini chip at the base... Weight...1 kilo 274 gr
