Description

Oak sideboard country style early 19th

It opens with two doors in the lower part revealing a fixed oak shelf and two drawers at the level of the belt of the furniture. It is very worked.
It can be used to store heavy stacks of dishes.
This piece of furniture offers considerable space saving since in addition to the dishes, the drawers can be used to store cutlery sets. The drawers are mounted dovetail ensuring perfect strength.
This is how they can be opened daily and contain many objects. They slide perfectly.
The lock and key are in very good working condition.
The back of the sideboard has solid wood panels so very resistant.
