

Early Art Wood Sculpture Sepik Papua 20th

750 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Height : 45

Description

Early, ethnic, tribal art Combining anthropomorphic and zoomorphic characters, this statuette acted as a protective charm Region of the mouth of the Sepik or the Ramu River, Papua New Guinea Sculpture of a mythological spirit, standing, the feet merging into one single volume Characteristic shape of the nose ending in a bird's beak connected towards the navel, a sign of masculine strength Conical headdress covered with clan motifs with angular lines Hard wood, old patina of use Period: 20th Century Dimensions: 45 x 7.5 cm From the personal collection of a former colonial administrator, acquired during the 1950s, of authentic origin Good condition

Dealer

ADEQUANTIK

Antics

Mobile : 0682817031

6 rue Gay Lussac

Angers 49100