Description

Hamadan carpet, with a beautiful decoration on a red background centered on a cross-shaped medallion.

Heavy and thick, this beautiful rug measures 213 cm x 305 cm long and was knotted around 1980.

It has a beautiful abrash visible on a part which appears bleached by the sun to the novice.

But we call abrash, this type of discoloration desired by the knotter and which we find on many carpets from Central Asia or Persia, abrash which gives a very particular meaning to the carpet, which is a contribution of beauty in carpet art.

These Persian rugs are hand-knotted in many villages and come in a wide choice of different patterns and colors.

These rugs, available in several sizes, come from the Hamadan region of Iran and are a perfect
