Description

Léon Marie Jouenne 1845-1912

Norman painter and wood engraver, he likes genre scenes and still lifes.

He was a student of Hector Handeau and his paintings were exhibited at the Salon des artistes Français, where he received a medal in 1902.

Here he offers us an atypical still life, very luminous and colorful.

Jouenne has a real sense of light and colors, also admire the delicacy of the irises
