Description

Curved all-sided chest of drawers in Louis XV style and from the late 19th century. Marquetry of rosewood and fruit wood in cartridges on the facade and on the sides. Very rich ornamentation of very finely chiseled bronzes with exceptional gilding. Bronze crowbar feet. Oak frame. It is topped with a rare original orientable breccia marble from Baixas (Oriental Pyrenees France). This chest of drawers of exceptional manufacturing quality is the work of a cabinetmaker from Faubourg Saint Antoine in Paris around 1890. Delivery possible, please contact us.
