Description

Series of four modernist Art Deco photo frames in chrome-plated brass around 1950.

There are two pairs, a large one and a smaller one.

Each frame has a double pane of glass to install the photograph.

With the possibility of installing two photos, one on the front and the other on the back.

They are in good condition, just a slight cleaning possibly, note that the glasses have been replaced on one of the two small frames, these two glasses are of different sizes compared to its twin (see dimensions for photos).

Height of the two large frames: 18.5 cm.
