Description

Important and heavy Sarough Mir hand-knotted in kork wool, from Iran, measuring 288 cm x 392 cm in length.

Carpet in perfect condition (impeccable) and dating from the 1980s.

A very resistant piece, with beautiful colors, mainly ivory, blue and a dominant deep red.

The entire red field decorated with tiny botehs placed diagonally.

The Sarouk Mir is differentiated by this design of botehs covering the field on a red, blue or ivory background. Sometimes a large medallion breaks up the space, the borders are wide, made up of numerous more or less wide braids, thirteen for this piece, with a clever and complicated design.

The shades are fresh and the thick and soft velvet is in perfect condition.

The edges are impeccable as are the fringes.

The finish at both ends in fringes.

Kork wool is the softest and silkiest wool taken from the first shearing of lambs, mainly under the neck and belly.

This rug is a beautiful decorative and comfortable piece, the decor is abundant and beautifully designed and the Kork wool is of very high quality.

The Sarough carpet, or Sarouk, the Ecbatana of Antiquity, is knotted in a few villages near Sarouk in the agricultural region of Arak.

European buying houses have had agencies there since the mid-19th century.

Most of these rugs are nicknamed hamadan by traders, particularly the runner rugs knotted in this region.

These rugs have distinct identities, our model is of the Sarouk Mir type knotted in the small town of that name but marketed in Hamadan.

These rugs remain very popular in the United States where decorators appreciate the heavy and large luxurious wool pieces.

Dimensions: Width: 288 cm (113") x Length: 392 cm (154")

This rug has been professionally and environmentally friendly cleaned.
