

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Rooster Chantecler Ball Pass In Polychrome Pressed Cardboard

7 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Cardboard

Length : 90

Height : 160

Description

Beautiful ball holder in pressed cardboard or polychrome boiled cardboard representing a Rooster with outstretched wings from the famous play by Edmond Rostand "Chantecler" from 1910. The play Chantecler was performed for the first time on February 7, 1910 at the Théâtre de la Porte Saint Martin in Paris. "Over a farmyard reigns a rooster, Chantecler, so convinced of his importance that he imagines, through his crowing, making the sun rise." Origin from "Au Nain Bleu" store. The story of Le Nain Bleu began in Paris in 1836. First established at 27 boulevard des Capucines, Au Nain Bleu quickly established itself as a reference in the world of toys. Work late 19th century/early 20th century
The base is posterior (65 cm x 47 cm) Total height: 160 cm Rooster height: 125 cm Length:

Dealer

Buhard Jean Yves

Luminaires, Mobilier Régional du XVIIème au XXème siècle

Mobile : 06 87 42 80 63

1726 Route de Montpreval

Saint-André-sur-Vieux-Jonc 01960

90 cm (wingspan spread)