Description

The two antelopes, probably of the Sable species from Kenya or South Africa which have the particularity of having very large curved horns which give them an attitude and an elegant and aesthetic head carriage. They are in two postures opposite, one at rest, the other standing in action. They are in dark patina metal with golden reflections, the whole is fixed on a white mirror marble support which increases the contrast. The whole is in good condition. POSSIBILITY OF SENDING, careful reinforced packaging, registered with signature, insurance and tracking on the internet by its number (shipping costs).
