Description

Rustic walnut and cherry buffet

It opens with two doors in the lower part revealing a fixed shelf and two drawers at the level of the belt of the furniture.

It can be used to store heavy stacks of dishes. This piece of furniture offers considerable space saving since in addition to the dishes, the drawers can be used to store cutlery sets.

The drawers are mounted dovetail ensuring perfect strength. This is how they can be opened daily and contain many objects. They slide perfectly. The drawers open with told "cuvette" buttons.

At the door level, the lock and key are in very good working order.

The back of the sideboard has solid wood panels so very resistant.

Decorative objects can be placed on the tray.

This piece of furniture is very elegant in structure and sobriety. It has a beautiful patina.

It is a piece of furniture of character.

The two front feet have volute feet, while the back feet are straight with half volute.

The interior of the furniture has been cleaned so that the objects are stored in a very healthy and odorless environment.

The buffet was once a symbol of social status.

Robust and functional, it was reserved for reception rooms.
