Description

A charming piece, a rare eared broth bowl with its lid and bowl decorated with throws of country flowers signed VP in red under the bowl for Veuve Perrin in Marseille.

This is a large broth bowl of a good size with a very beautiful decoration of country flowers and borders decorated with gold-plated friezes.

the handles are twisted and gilded like foliage scrolls. the lid is superb with a floral decoration of great finesse and a raised grip decorated with floral motifs, an olive tree scroll with golden leaves and olives.

the bowl is also in very good condition with the same floral decoration and a golden border.

red VP mark under the lid.

very good condition overall, small gaps in gilding due to age.

a tiny restoration on the edge of the bowl, almost invisible for 2 mm.

a small chip of 2 mm around the edge of the bowl.

the whole thing sounds and colors very well.

a rare broth bowl set with handles, its lid and its bowl in excellent condition with a country decoration of brightly colored flower throws and great finesse and gilding in good condition, all from the Louis XV period, mid from the 18th century.

a very nice collectible set.
