

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Venetian Fortress On The Greek Island Of Corfu. Signed Tin Florias (1897-1969, Greek)

350 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 74cm

Height : 59cm

Depth : 8cm

Description

Venetian fortress on the Greek island of Corfu.
Signed Tin Florias (1897-1969, Greek)

Constantin (Tin) Florias (Corfu, 1897-1969).

Painting signed lower right Tin Florias.

Oil on canvas, canvas and original stretcher.

Painting in good original condition.

White painted wooden frame with a textured, rough surface.

The painting represents the Old Fortress (in Greek ?????? ??????) is a Venetian fortress located in the town of Corfu, on the promontory

Dealer

Antichità di Alina

Peintures anciennes - Art nouveau - Art déco, micromosaïques, porcelaine

Mobile : +39 3383199131

Via Maggio 63 / rosso

Firenze 50100

which initially sheltered the ancient city formed in the Byzantine era.

Tin Florias was a Greek artist, who began his training on his native island, Corfu, but lived in Paris in the years 1918-1936, exhibiting regularly in Independent Salons. In Paris, he collaborated with the Greek painter Dimitris Galanis (Greece, 1886 - 1966, Paris) in whose studio he met famous artists, Picasso, Henri Matisse, Derain, Bonnard. Galanos was one of the first Greek painters recognized as a member of the international avant-garde.