Description

This large Louis XVI mirror is composed of a frame of two scalloped gilded wood moldings. We find garlands of pearls and plant elements at the corners. This mirror is topped with a large, finely carved pediment composed of foliage and acanthus leaves. In the center, a pretty beaded medallion depicting an elegant woman is accompanied by an important bow which dominates this set of mercury ice creams. With its generous pediment and the finesse of these ornamentations, this large mirror with beautiful old gilding will charm you with its presence.
 Period: Late 19th Century Excellent condition.
