The Breton By Jean Georges Achard Sculptor Bordeaux

320 EUR

Signature : Jean Georges ACHARD

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Height : 30

Description

Le Breton by Jean Georges ACHARD sculptor from Bordeaux, terracotta from a unique workshop copy signed lower left. Jean-Georges Achard, born March 13, 1871 in Abzac and died September 23, 1934 in Bordeaux, is a French sculptor and designer. A student of his father Jean-Achille Achardet de Falguière, Jean-Georges Achard exhibited at the French Artists from 1891 and received a 3rd class medal in 1903 and then the silver medal in 1922. He lives and works in Montparnasse, at 14 avenue du Maine, then at 11 impasse Ronsin, at 32 rue Dutot and at 18 rue Antoine Bourdelle. Worksmodify Statue of Paul Kruger located in Rustenburg (South Africa), 1901 Bust of Frédéric Mistral, bronze, 1911 Monument to Frédéric Mistral in the gardens of the Frédéric Mistral Museum in

Dealer

Aatos Antiquités
Géneraliste
Tel : 06 37 16 83 71

Asprement 06790

Maillane (Bouches-du-Rhône) - Marble statue Inaugurated on April 2, 1929 Monument to the Children of Gironde who died for their country in 1870-1871 in Bordeaux. Bronze statue inaugurated in 1913 Sorrowful France to its glorious sons, main figure of the monument to the dead of the First World War in Le Cateau (North) - Plaster statue Monument to the dead of the 1914-1918 war in Saint-Émilion. Inaugurated in 1923 Monument to the dead of the 1914-1918 war in Cateau-Cambrésis. Bronze statue. 1923 France bringing palms, main figure of the Guîtres monument (Gironde) - Bronze statue 1924 Victory emerging from the ruins, main figure of the Poix-du-Nord monument (North) - Bronze statue Silenus surprised by the shepherds , plaster statue. Destroyed by decision of the Commission on July 30, 1940 Apotheosis of French cuisine - Bas-relief Statue of Marshal Exelmans, at the Citadel of Verdun. Executed in 1932 and 1933 in the Del Debbio workshops[9] Portrait of Émile Zola Bust of Adolphe Willette Bust of King Sisowath Bust of Henry-Marie Bouley, marble at the National Museum of Natural History Monument to Ulysse Despaux in Bordeaux. Inaugurated in 1926[10] Bust of Jean Charles-Brun in Sceaux. Bronze. 1933[11] Nicholas II, inspired by peace, receives tributes from French industry and commerce Love on the lookout (Fountain) The Kiss of the Wave The Lion in love Reception by the City of Paris of LL. MM. the King and Queen of Italy The Death of Hippolyte (Project for a luminous fountain) Léda Daphnis and Chloé