Description: A splendid oil painting on canvas depicting a still life of fruits, dating back to the 19th century. The colors are warm and intense, and the contrast of light and shadow creates depth and three-dimensionality. Still life, a genre often defying time and decay, finds a beautiful interpretation in this painting. Thanks to the dark tones of the background, the subjects appear vivid and luminous. The artwork is enclosed in an original gypsum frame, adding an elegant touch and value to the intrinsic beauty of the painting.
