Description

Truly rare, this finely decorated antique rectangular casket, German porcelain manufacturer KPM, circa 1870. The KPM brand is engraved on the inside. Made with a finely chiseled bronze mantle that has acquired a beautiful antique patina. Each side of this casket is a true work of art with hand-painted porcelain. On the lid we find an animated scene of the interior of a tavern with many characters, the scene is taken from a painting by the German artist Franz Von Defregger "Ball auf der Alm". Each side is finely hand painted with beautiful Austrian landscapes, under the landscapes an inscription identifies the location. This casket is the perfect example of the high artistic quality that has been achieved by the KPM porcelain manufacturer, known throughout the world for
