Description

Bronze sculpture by Michel Decoux from the early 20th century, around the 1920s on a black and sea green marble base. Michel Decoux 1837 1924 is an artist of the 19th and early 20th centuries who was a student of Pierre Jules Mène and Antoine Louis Barye and worked at the beginning of the 20th century as a precursor of the art deco style. Here a very interesting work because it was early in the period, even announcing the style of the 1940s in its style. Man or Hercules fighting with an eagle with a magnificent green patina contrasting with the dark, two-tone art deco base. Signature of the artist on the black marble base. Work to be placed on a console or chest of drawers in a quality art deco interior. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by secure package.
