G. LEBART - Floral Decoration. Paris, A.

Calavas publisher, Lemercier printing company;

Complete album, With its explanatory note.

* Very beautiful Art-Nouveau album, circa 1900

Format 58 x 39 cm

The interior consists, on the title page of a drawing or engraving in shades of blue, of pages of explanatory notes for each plate, and of 12 plates rich in sumptuous colors and gilding (very difficult to realize the effect of the gilding which has not been conveyed at all by the photos).

The artist offers us here sumptuous large lithographs, exceptional in their beauty with a resolutely Art Nouveau decor.

The morocco back is gilded with iron motifs of fleurons and beaded nets in reserves. The title G.LEBART - FLORAL DECORATION is also marked with a gilding iron. Note the yellowed explanatory note, the cover with faded cardboard covers, the blunt and scratched corners, the two lower corners heavily cropped.

To conclude, the interior of this album is in good condition, the spine is damaged at both ends but can be restored, on the opposite side of the spine the two lower corners of the covers are amputated by a fairly large part.
