

Chaouabti Or Oushebti - Green-blue Frit - Ancient Egypt - Late Period

330 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

Hand delivery in Paris or delivery in France:
20EUR.

Shaouabti or oushebti
blue-green frit

Ancient Egypt, Late Period (664 - 332 BC)
Dimensions : H. 13,5 with base ; H. 9 without (cm.)

This oushebti rests on a slight bulge. He is wearing a false beard, a wig and farming implements. The green colour is due to the ageing of the earthenware pigments. He is an epigraph.

Votive use:

These statuettes represent the funeral servants who were to answer Osiris' call and replace the

Dealer

Galerie Vendémiaire

Néoclassicisme, provenances, objets d'art, décoration et curiosités

Mobile : +33 6 66 62 94 52

838 chemin de la Lauve

Saint-Raphaël 83700

dead man in the work of the fields in the afterlife.

Depending on the social status of the deceased, the funerary statuettes are made of terracotta, stone, bronze, wood or green or blue enamelled clay and represent the deceased either in the Osirid (mummiform) position or dressed in the clothes he wore in everyday life.

Condition report: accidents and wear