

Large Aubusson Tapestry With Polychrome Floral Decoration, 19th Century

1 600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Tapestry

Length : 275 cm

Width : 141 cm

Description

Large Aubusson tapestry with floral decoration from the 19th century In the upper part is a garland of roses and wisteria flowers topped with a large arabesque and an acanthus leaf In the center is a large polychrome floral spray with peonies, roses, anemones... On the lower part a small bouquet surmounts an arabesque in the shape of an acanthus leaf The background is ivory colored Framing with acanthus leaves and intertwined climbing roses Red border Very fresh and shimmering colors Slight traces time: a small discoloration on the left edge and a trace of moth (1 x 1 cm) which reveals the weft Tapestry ready to hang because mounted on a recent iron bar width: 141 cm length: 275 cm

Dealer

Le Psyché d'Antan

Antiquaire généraliste

Tel : 05 53 71 86 42

Mobile : 06 82 47 25 03

Chamouveau - 711 route de l'église

Trentels 47140