

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Boulenger Vegetable Dish And Silver Metal Display Stand Late 19th Century

450 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silver metal

Diameter : 22

Height : 12

Description

Covered vegetable dish and its leafy silver metal display Hallmarks and signature Boulenger, goldsmith Condition of use, superficial scratches on the dish Period: late 19th century, early 20th century Flat diameter 33 cm; vegetable diameter 22.5 cm, total height approximately 12 cm; weight 6,100 kg Goldsmith's mark: "BOULENGER" and a croissant; Master goldsmith: Adolphe Boulenger This hallmark was inscribed on June 23, 1876 and crossed out on April 9, 1899. The company was founded in Paris in 1810 by Mr. Boulenger-Hautin, active until 1938, specializing in tableware . In 1864 it was taken over by the nephew of the founder, Adolphe Boulenger and became "A.Boulenger & Cie" located at 4 rue du Vert Bois in Paris. His son, Charles Boulenger, took over after the death

Dealer

ADEQUANTIK

Antics

Mobile : 0682817031

6 rue Gay Lussac

Angers 49100

of his father in 1898 and the company became
"Ch. Boulenger & Cie".