Description

This plaque represents the city of Mâcon in the form of an allegory, a woman who crowns two young athletes, followed by a child. At the top of the plaque there is the city's coat of arms, between two vine stocks. On the other side it is indicated what it commemorates "The international gymnastics competition of August 14-15, 1898" organized by the city of Mâcon. The bronze is a creation of Guillaume DELORME (born in 1843 and died in 1907 in Mâcon). It is the THEVENIN Fres-Mâcon Foundries which cast this large bronze plaque. It is mounted on a plate in walnut, with cut sides and beveled fields. Guillaume DELORME was "a student of Mr. Chambellan at the School of Drawing and Industrial Arts in Mâcon, he worked there for many years as a teacher. He became an associate
