Description

subject: landscape with ruins and characters
Author: Alessio de Marchis (Naples 1684- Urbino 1752)
Technique and dimensions: oil on canvas; 95 x 70 cm
The pictorial technique characterized by vibrant, pasty brushstrokes, figurines resolved in spots, combined with a high, intense, pre-romantic lyricism in the most genuine homage to the Rosian tradition, resurrected here, but filtered by the language of the Roman school not alien to Flemish suggestions, all these characteristics well traceable in our landscape with ruins, allow us not to exclude its probable attribution to the painter of Neapolitan origins and Roman training Alessio De Marchis (Naples 1684-Urbino 1752).
