Dutch Oliphant

8 000 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Restauré

Material : Ivory

Length : 51

Description

Ancient oliphant (hunting horn) made by strongly thinning the tusk, so as to allow the mouthpiece to be obtained in high relief for playing. The lower end is carved with floral decorations and the depiction of St. Merphary on horseback. The object has undergone a finely executed restoration at the end of the horn. Accompanied by CITES certification
