Description

Set of two 1950s era stools in folded metal for one and wood and metal for the other. Very decorative and original seats with their seat in the shape of quite comfortable agricultural machine seats. Note the base for one in folded sheet metal in the Jean Prouvé style and for the other more art deco inspired. Very good general condition of the structures allowing daily use possibly. Possibility of sending in France and throughout the world by professional carrier and by secure package.
