Description
-------------

Beautiful old box with wooden structure and speckled maple veneer; it is decorated with numerous fleur-de-lis fittings with interlacing patterns on a guilloché background and buttons in imitation of gilded brass nails centered with mother-of-pearl cabochons surrounded by Greek friezes.

The lid is decorated in full with a beautiful miniature on ivory about a charming young woman in a radiant entourage with motifs of interlacing, foliage and cabochons as a reminder of the entire decorative repertoire of the object.

The lock entrance decorated with foliage, windings, the surround of the key hole forming an oval medallion.

The object in good condition rests on four small ivory spinning top feet.
