

Box With Birds Allegory Of Marriage. Mother-of-pearl Box Napoleon III 19th Century

780 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Nacre

Length : 11,5 cm

Width : 8 cm

Height : 10 cm

Description

Delicate mother-of-pearl and brass box from the Napoleon III 19th century period. Two mother-of-pearl shells serve as containers for this charming box, on top a group of two birds around their nest decorated with a pair of pearls depicting their eggs. An allegory of union and family. The box rests on six feet covered with small mother-of-pearl shells, all decorated with garlands of flowers and interlacing. Precious object in excellent condition. Dimensions Length 11.5 cm Height 10 cm Width 8 cm

Dealer

Loft Antiq

Antiquités

Tel : 04.73.94.25.87

Mobile : 06.69.72.46.57

24 Avenue de la Gare

Courpière 63 120