

Mother-of-pearl Dance Card, "souvenir", Restoration Period Circa 1820

800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Nacre

Length : 8 cm

Width : 6,2 cm

Description

Dance card, notebook made up of two finely engraved mother-of-pearl plaques. In the center of the first side a bronze plaque engraved with the inscription "souvenir". Pretty gilt bronze frame decorated on the side with its lead pencil stylus which allows the notebook to be closed. Silk interior. Note a small scratch visible on the lower part of the first side, it remains barely visible. The notebook measures 3,15 inches long and 2,44 inches wide. France, Paris, circa 1820.

Dealer

Weber antiquités

Objects of vertu, antique fans, canes...

Tel : 06 63 11 92 85

Dieulefit 26220