Description

Beautiful composition titled on the back Les Vigne Roses 60cm x 81cm signed lower right and countersigned on the back dated 1984 Michel POURTEYRON born in 1938 worked in Marseille in the 1960s-70s Friend of Ambrogiani, admirer of Mélik His work remained figurative in the during this period then he returned to his native region near Bordeaux and changed his style to turn towards abstraction The painting that I am offering you represents a field of pink vines This painting is dated on the back from 1984 we feel at home artist that he is in a pivotal era where he moves away from the expressionist figuration which gave him great success towards a stripping approaching towards abstraction. which will not leave until the end of his life .. beautiful collector's item free shipping to the European
