Three Oils On Canvas "the Gardens Of Versailles" By Lucie Ranvier Chartier 1867/1932

750 EUR

Signature : Lucie RANVIER CHARTIER
Period : 20th century
Condition : Très bon état
Material : Other
Width : entre 42 et 44 cm cadre inclu
Height : entre 52 et 54 cm cadre inclu

Description

Three oils on canvas "the gardens of Versailles" by Lucie RANVIER CHARTIER 1867/1932 Signed and dated 1921

Lucie Ranvier-Chartier, born Lucie Louise Henriette Chartier in Paris on July 16, 1867 and died in Boulogne-Billancourt on November 6, 1932, is a French painter ucie Ranvier-Chartier is the daughter of Aimé Chartier and Isabelle Simon. She married Paul Ranvier, a measuring architect, in Boulogne-Billancourt. At the Julian Academy, she took lessons from Marcel Baschet and Paul Thomas3. She is also a student of Madame Thoret4. In 1906, she won a first prize for a poster on Tunisia, where she was going to stay. In 1911, she was a member of the Salon des artistes français. In 1918, her husband died3.

Dealer

Galerie Arcanes
CÉRAMIQUES DE COLLECTION ANCIENNES. CERAMIQUES D'ARTISTES. .VERRERIES.
Mobile : 06 08 24 35 77/ 06 36 21 99 02

23 Passage de la geôle.
Versailles 78000

From 1922 to 1931, she worked as a painter in Morocco5. She exhibited at the Salon des Artistes Français in 1927 Les Bains de Diane and Les Marmousets: two representations of the Park of the Château de Versailles6