Description

fragments of Aubusson tapestries from the 18th century, restored and cleaned by the Workshops of La Maison CHEVALIER in Courbevoie years ago. The borders were removed because they were probably too damaged, a canvas was placed on the back. The decorations are for one: 1 couple in period clothing under an umbrella in the center of the panel, greenery (dimensions 1.30X2.40cm) The character tapestry remains the most restored but nevertheless has a great effect. The colors are beautiful, in gradients of blue and green enhanced with pink for each fragment.
