Description

Mirror in gilded wood with large pediment topped with a bowl teeming with grapes, flowers and leaves. On either side, lying on large foliage sculptures, two putti hold bunches of grapes in their hands. A medallion takes the central place on this pediment. The frame, with multiple moldings and gilded with double-tone leaf, is decorated with fine leaf decorations. The interior rim, decorated with a string of pearls, highlights an important authentic mercury ice cream. This mirror, masterful in its size and the quality of its decorations, will bring character to your decoration.  Period: Mid-19th century Very good condition. Normal wear of the glass relative to its age. Additional photos available by clicking on the following link:
