Description

Louis Philippe 19th century French chest of drawers. The wood is made of walnut bramble. Walnut brambles are flamed because they have many aesthetic designs. These drawings have complex, highly contrasting patterns and intricate veins on a naturally dark background of varying intensities. So the bramble of walnut wonderfully imitates a theater curtain.

This dresser is equipped with four drawers. The bottom of the drawers is solid oak.

The drawers are mounted dovetail ensuring perfect strength. The drawers can be opened daily and hold many sometimes heavy objects. They slide perfectly.

The back of the dresser has solid wood panels so very resistant.

The discreet entrances do not protrude from the
