Description

Painting "Quietude" by Kazimierz Dzyga - June 1976. Fantastic realistic style, born from the imagination, from the dreamlike... His paintings are all imbued with serenity, reinforced by an omnipresent realism. This canvas presents a jumble of horses, fruits, a wind instrument and balloons of impressive realism, all against a backdrop of mountains, a ruined bridge and a citadel straight out of a dream... Dimensions of the canvas: 81 x 65 cm Dimensions with the frame: 101 x 86 cm Shipping costs in addition to be defined according to the destination. Hand delivery possible around Montfort-l'Amaury (Yvelines).
