Description

A gold signet ring carved with the image of a wheat sheaf.

German, mid 17th century.

Ring size S UK / 9 US.

The bezel measures 1.3 x 1.1cm.

The wheat sheaf was a symbol of abundance and fertility, the flanking initials 'P' and 'H' represent the name of the original owner.

This ring would have been used as a signet, pressed into hot wax to seal a letter or packet.

Personal seals provided an essential legal safeguard and were used to witness documents such as wills, deeds of gift, loans and commercial
