Description

Elegant tomb chest of drawers with pronounced curves in solid Cuban mahogany, it opens with four drawers in three rows, the top of a single board molded with a corbin beak. It rests on four legs ending in a winding, the lower crossbars as well as the intermediate side crossbars are molded and scrolled, the apron finely carved with a flower and foliage. It has retained its brass handles and keyholes as well as its original box locks. The bottoms of the drawers are in oak. Quality Bordeaux work in a very good state of conservation, Louis XV period. Backup restorations carried out, waxed filled finish.
