Description

Pretty oil on canvas "the young fille with black stockings" by Pierre eugène DUTEURTRE, known as "Dut". If Duteurtre's works are known and recognized by amateurs, they often characterize this pictorial style typical of the 50s and 60s with scenes of daily life, views of Paris or even floral bouquets. This subject, namely, this naked woman lying down, is the only painting that I have seen in this signature. It is therefore, by the choice of subject, very original. Beautiful warm colors, very characteristic of this era. It has its original black and gold frame. It is countersigned and titled with certificate of authenticity on the back. Length outside frame: 53 by 45 cm; With frame 68 by 60cm Another oil on this site by the same artist.
