Description

It represents a young fish seller by the sea leaning against the side of her hinny (a sort of mule) which she uses to transport her fish. With an ingenuous look, she gives the impression of striking a pose, with one shoulder largely bare. In the background, a city perhaps reminiscent of Venice. Beautiful depth, magnificent colors as well as real finesse of execution characterize this delightful painting which will not fail to seduce you. A favorite for the originality of its support! Dimensions: 32 cm x 46 cm Very good condition. Traces of paint as well as a tiny trace of hanging on the back of the panel (see photo).
